

All transitions which have not been drawn (incoming to S or outgoing from E) are by definition of the HMM not possible and have zero probability in the transition matrix A